Re: Manju Goel, Manju For Congress, Indian Americans For Freedom, and Shalabh Kumar

Dear Mr. General Counsel:

Please accept this letter as a Complaint against Manju Goel, Manju For Congress, Indian Americans For Freedom and Shalabh Kumar for operating in violation of Federal Election Commission ("FEC") regulations.

Manju Goel is a candidate for the Republican Party nomination for the Office of Representative in Congress for the 8th Congressional District in the State of Illinois ("the Candidate"). Manju For Congress ("MFC") is the Candidate's authorized principal campaign committee.

Indian Americans For Freedom ("IAFF") is an Illinois not-for-profit corporation. IAFF's registered agent is Mike Martin, who also serves as a paid campaign consultant to MFC. (See Exhibit A, Exhibit D, page 19 of 30.) IAFF registered with the FEC on or about November 28, 2012. (See Exhibit B.) In its filings with the FEC, IAFF purports to be a "501 c(4) nonprofit social welfare corporation formed on 10/2/2012." (See Exhibit B.) IAFF also purports to be an independent expenditure-only committee that accepts unlimited contributions, and makes independent expenditures on behalf of Federal candidates. (See Exhibit B.) IAFF has filed no disclosures with the FEC since 2012.

Shalabh Kumar ("Kumar") operates and manages the IAFF, and appears to be the principal contributor to IAFF. (See Exhibit B.) Kumar also is an ardent supporter of the Candidate. Kumar and his immediate family, including his two children (one of whom is reported to be a student), have maxed out to MFC, contributing $26,000 to MFC in 2013. (Exhibit C, pp 9-12.)

Although IAFF purports to be an independent expenditure-only committee, IAFF has improperly made a number of in-kind contributions to MFC. In addition, although Kumar has contributed the maximum to MFC, he has also made in-kind contributions that have not been disclosed by MFC, and which constitute contributions in excess of legal limits. Further still, Kumar's various corporate entities for his business interests have made in-kind contributions to MFC, in violation of the FECA.

Committees that solicit and accept unlimited contributions from individuals, political committees, corporations and labor organizations for the purpose of making independent expenditures are prohibited from making direct contributions to federal political committees. See Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission, 130 S. Ct. 876, 901 (2010) (noting that Buckley v. Valeo first upheld the FECA's limits on direct contributions to candidates to protect against the government interest in the prevention of corruption and the appearance of corruption"). The FEC defines a "contribution" to include "any gift, subscription, loan, advance, or deposit of money or anything of value made by a person for the purpose of influencing any election for Federal office" (emphasis added).

As noted, as an independent expenditure-only committee, IAFF is prohibited from making direct or in-kind contributions to federal candidate committees. Furthermore, the Candidate and MFC are prohibited from receiving contributions unless those monies were raised subject to the limitations, prohibitions and reporting requirements of the FECA, and received from permissible sources, which IAFF is not.

Kumar and IAFF are, for all practical purposes, running and financing the Candidate's campaign, and making expenditures on behalf of MFC that are both illegal and have not been reported. For instance, MFC purports to have raised over $200,000 in the third quarter of 2013, but also purports to have spent only $55 in that quarter. During this time period, the Candidate had a number of campaign staff working for her. These staffers, on information and belief, were paid directly by Mr. Kumar or by IAFF and not reported.¹

As additional evidence of staff coordination between MFC and IAFF, on January 6, 2013, one of MFC's principal staffers, Alka Tyle, actually publicly announced that she had left MFC to work for IAFF. (See Exhibit E.)

Further, MFC's campaign is headquartered out of Kumar and IAFF's offices, but MFC has not reported any in-kind contribution for office space from either Kumar or IAFF (not that such a contribution would be proper in any respect).

According to its FEC filings, IAFF is located at 363 St. Paul Blvd (Kwality Office), Carol Stream, IL 60188. (See Exhibit B.) This address is also listed as the corporate headquarters for AVG Automation, Kwality Travel and Autotech Corporation, which are companies owned and operated by Kumar. (See Exhibit F.) In addition, Kumar is a principal in the National Indian American Public Policy Institute ("NIAPPI"), which does business in this same office complex. (See www.niappi.com)

While MFC lists a post office box in Carol Stream as its address, all MFC campaign activities are run out of Kumar's offices at 363 St. Paul Blvd in Carol Stream.

For instance, on December 10, 2013, former Congressman Joe Walsh sent a fundraising email seeking to raise funds for the Candidate and MFC. In that e-mail, Walsh requested that contributions to MFC be sent to the 363 St. Paul Blvd Carol Stream address. (See Exhibit G.)

In December of 2013, the Candidate's nominating papers were challenged in an administrative proceeding at the Illinois State Board of Elections. In that proceeding, one of the Candidate's campaign workers, Amitabh Mittal, submitted an affidavit swearing that he performed notary services for MFC on two separate dates in November at MFC's campaign headquarters, which he affirmed was located at "363 St. Paul Blvd, Carol Stream, IL 60188." (See Exhibit H.) Mr. Mittal also testified to his work for MFC, as reflected in the Hearing Officer's Recommendations in the case. (See Exhibit I.)

On January 23, 2014, MFC hosted a Townhall Meeting in Kumar's office complex at the so-called "Rana Reagan Center" located at 343 St. Paul Blvd., Carol Stream, IL. (See Exhibit J.)

Notably, at no time has MFC reported an in-kind contribution for office space from Kumar, IAFF, NIAPPI, or any of Kumar's related corporate entities. To the extent IAFF has made in-kind contributions to MFC, such contributions are illegal, as coming from an independent expenditure-only committee. To the extent Kumar has made in-kind contributions to MFC, such contributions are illegal, as they are in excess of legal limits. To the extent that any of Kumar's corporate entities have made in-kind contributions to MFC, such contributions are illegal as coming from an illegal source.

Kumar is a daily presence on the Candidate's campaign. He manages the day to day operations of the Candidate's campaign, including hiring and firing staff. Kumar appears with the Candidate at events in the district, as well as in Washington, DC. Kumar handles press inquiries for the Candidate.

On September 8, 2013, the Candidate announced her campaign for Congress at the Northwest Suburban Republican Picnic in Elk Grove Village, Illinois. Kumar appeared with the Candidate at her announcement, as can be seen on the Candidate's website, www.manjuforcongress.com. Kumar was interviewed by the Daily Herald while at the event. <http://www.dailyherald.com/article/20130909/news/709099904/>. On information and belief, Kumar personally hired buses to bring supporters to the kickoff event.

Since that time, Kumar has attended numerous campaign events with the Candidate. When reporters call to ask the Candidate positions on campaign issues, they are directed to Kumar for answers. In addition, Kumar recently attended a Daily Herald Editorial Board interview with the Candidate, and in the record of the session, is even referenced as being in the room while the interview is taking place. (starts at 5:20). <http://www.dailyherald.com/article/20140205/news/702059937/video/5042a74d/#navAnchor>

Kumar's involvement in the day-to-day operations of the Candidate's campaign was particularly evident in the State Board of Elections proceedings at which the Candidate's nominating petitions were challenged. In these proceedings, the Candidate was represented by two attorneys, one of whom was Kumar's personal attorney, Cary Fleischer. (See Exhibit I, p. 2; Exhibit K, p. 7.) Although Kumar was not a party to the State Board proceedings, he nonetheless appeared at two separate occasions to direct the Candidate's counsel. At no time has MFC disclosed the value of Fleischer's services.

IAFF has begun an active mail campaign on behalf of the Candidate. As of today, IAFF has mailed two district-wide mail pieces on the Candidate's behalf. (See Exhibit K.) The Candidate has sent out one piece. (See Exhibit L.) Even a cursory review of these pieces reveal the pieces were all mailed under the same permit number, contain the same messaging, same photos of the Candidate, and same typeset all of which demonstrate coordination between IAFF and MFC.

Based upon the facts discussed above, Manju Goel, Manju For Congress, Indian Americans For Freedom, and Shalabh Kumar have violated the FECA. We respectfully request that the FEC investigate the conduct set out herein and, impose such penalties as may be warranted.

The foregoing is correct and accurate to the best of my knowledge, information and belief.

I hope all is well. I am writing to ask that you support an amazing Republican candidate, Manju Goel, who has a unique shot to defeat Tammy Duckworth in 2014 in Illinois 8th Congressional District.

As you know, the Democrats controlled redistricting in 2012 and they drew a district specifically for Duckworth. I took on that tough fight, gave it everything I had, and came up just a bit short.

To continue the fight in the 8th in 2014, I have enthusiastically thrown my support behind Manju -- a businesswoman, health care expert, wife and mother. Manju is a limited government conservative. When I asked her why she wanted to be in Congress, she said because Obamacare needs to be repealed and we need a government that balances its budget every year.

Manju is also Indian American. I bring this up because Illinois 8th District has one of the highest percentage of Indian American voters of any Congressional district in the Country that will constitute as high as 20% of the total vote. I made great strides with the Indian community in 2012 and Manju has the potential to expand outreach into this Community better than almost anyone else could. This is so important -- for the Republican Party to expand to minority communities we need to find strong African American, Hispanic, and Indian American candidates who stand for freedom and limited government. They can best draw these voters to our principles.

Manju can beat Duckworth. In fact, I believe she's the only candidate who can.

I hope you'll join me and support Manju. To learn more about her go to manjuforcongress.com. If you'd like to meet her or speak with her, just let me know.

You can best help by spreading the word about this unique candidate and by giving her your financial support. You can do that by mailing a check made out to Manju For Congress to 363 St. Paul Blvd, Carol Stream, IL 60188. Or you can contribute on line at manjuforcongress.com, click on the "donation" link.

As this is a federal election, contribution limits are $2,600 per individual and $5,200 per couple.

Thanks so much. Please don't hesitate to call to discuss.

This race is personal to me. I want to see Duckworth beat.

Best,
Joe Walsh

BEFORE THE STATE ELECTORAL BOARD OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS

PATRICK MULLEN) Petitioner-Objectors) vs.) 13SOEBG 514
MANJU GOEL)
Respondent- Candidate)

HEARING OFFICER'S RECOMMENDATIONS TO THE STATE ELECTORAL BOARD

INTRODUCTION

Respondent-Candidate, MANJU GOEL, has filed nominating petitions to have his name placed on the March 18, 2014 primary ballot for the office of Representative for the 8th Congressional District. The Candidate's petitions included 1574 signatures. In order to be placed on the primary ballot, the Candidate is required to submit 475 valid signatures.

Petitioner-Objector, PATRICK MULLEN, has filed objections to the Candidate's nominating petition alleging, inter alia, notary and circulator irregularities, "pattern of fraud" and invalidity of approximately 1225 signatures.

The Candidate has filed a Motion to Strike wherein he posits, inter alia, that the number of objections demonstrate that the petition was filed in bad faith. He also alleges that the alleged notary irregularities, including a stamp which replicated the notary's signature, are de minimis and do not affect the validity of the petitions circulated.

The Objector has filed a Response to the Motion to Strike wherein he alleges, inter alia, that numerous petitions bear the Amitah Mittal notary stamp, but not his signature.

The Candidate filed a Reply, which included a letter signed by Amitah Mittal wherein he stated that he was physically present at the Manju for Congress Campaign office at 363 St. Paul Blvd, Carol

Stream, Illinois on November 22 and November 24, and that "all petitions were signed and sealed by me personally utilizing my signature and seal stamps. I personally also verified the details of the circulators and had them sign the petitions in my presence prior to accepting their petition lists for my signature."

A record examination found that the Candidate had submitted 1565 signatures. 425 objections to the signatures were sustained, 732 were overruled, thereby leaving the Candidate with 1140 valid signatures.

A request for the issuance of subpoenas made by the Objector was granted as regards Amitah Mittal.

The Objector did not file any Rule 9 material.

Hearing

A hearing on the Motion to Dismiss was originally scheduled for January 3, 2014 at the State Board of Elections office in Chicago. However, since Amitah Mittal was out of the country, the matter was continued to January 6, 2014.

At the January 6, 2014 hearing, the Candidate was represented by Anish Parikh and Cary Fleischer. The Objector was represented by John Fogarty. Prior to the start of the hearing, Mr. Fogarty acknowledged that he would not be providing any evidence on the issue of circulator irregularities and/or "pattern of fraud" set forth in paragraph 10 of the Objector's petition.

Testimony of Amitabh V W Mittal

Mr. Fogarty called Amitabh V W Mittal as a witness. Mr. Mittal testified that he resides in Bartlett and first became a notary in 1993, while living in Massachusetts. He eventually moved to Illinois and became an Illinois notary in 2007.

Mr. Mittal explained that he has worked as an international freight forwarder since 1993 and became a notary to carry out the duties and responsibilities of an international freight forwarder, which included filing documents that included his verified signature certifying that specified items were being shipped to a specified country. The documents containing his verified signature would be sent to the state's secretary of state office, where his signature would be verified. Once verified by the state's secretary of state office, the documents would then sent to the United States Secretary of State Office, where his signature would again be verified, and then sent to the country where the product was being shipped.

Because of the need for his signature to be similar enough to be accepted by the state secretary of state and the U.S. Secretary of State Office, Mr. Mittal used a signature facsimile stamp. He explained that he was never advised by anyone that he could not use a facsimile stamp. He further testified that when he became a notary in Illinois, he registered as a notary with the Illinois Secretary of State by using the facsimile.

Mr. Mittal explained the procedure he used when notarizing the circulator signatures appearing on the bottom of the 120 petition pages identified in paragraph 13 of the Objector's petition. (See Exhibit 1).

Mr. Mittal testified that on November 22, 2013 he met Michael Martin, a circulator for the Candidate, at the Candidate's campaign office in Carol Stream. Mr. Martin presented Mr. Mittal with nominating petitions Mr. Martin stated he circulated and which were signed in his presence. Only then did he notarize Martin's signature by entering Mr. Martin's name on the appropriate line on the bottom of the petition and applying his notary seal and his facsimile signature stamp to the form.

Mr. Martin also completed a notarization log in which Mr. Martin entered his name, address, date drivers' number and signature. However, he could not locate the log.

evidence of little if any, reasonable inquiry or investigation and lack of good faith" on behalf of Objector.

The Objector refutes the Candidate's characterization that the petition was "shotgun" and points out that "over 400 of the Candidate's signatures have been found to be invalid".

In McCarthy and Colvin, the Chicago Electoral Board, in finding that an objector brought a petition in bad faith, relied on Derengowski v. Lamm. In Derengowski the electoral board concluded that it should not be required to expend its time and resources, nor the time and resources of a candidate, in engaging in a "fishing expedition" for an objector who has not spent the requisite time and resources to make a reasonable inquiry of the facts. The Board found that entertaining such objections could invite future parties to interpose similar objections for improper purposes, such as to harass candidates, cause unnecessary delay in the preparation of the ballots or in the conduct of candidate campaigns, or needlessly increase the cost of conducting elections. Accordingly, Objections which have no basis in law or in fact and which are in the nature of what are commonly known as "shot-gun" objections will be dismissed.

Further, in Barton, the Chicago Electoral Board held that Objections which have no basis in law or in fact and which are in the nature of what are commonly known as "shot-gunned" objections will be dismissed. Baker v. James, 94 CO.99, Cir. ct. Cook Co. (J. Kinnaird, February 28, 1994) (affirming decision of Cook County Officers Electoral Board granting motion to strike objections raising every conceivable objection against every signature on petition sheets); Arafat v. Shaw, 91-EB-REP-81, CBEC, January, 1991; Reed v. Norman, 90 COEB-2, August 29, 1990, reversed on other grounds sub nom. Norman v. Kusper, 90 CO 238, Cir.ct.Cook co., Sept.20, 1990, rev'd on other grounds sub nom. Reed v. Norman, Ill.2d (1990), aff'd in part on other grounds remanded sub nom. Norman v. Reed, 112 S.ct. 698, 502 U.S. 279, aff'd on other grounds on remand sub nom. Reed v. Kusper, 154 Ill.2d 77, 607 N.E.2d 1198 (1992) (objections to all 44,000 signatures on the basis that the signatures were not signed in the voter's own proper persons and that the signers were not duly registered voters deemed overruled)

In finding that the petition in the Barton case was brought in bad faith, the Chicago Electoral Board found that:

The Hearing Examiner conducted a sample binder check of 365 randomly selected signatures. All 365 of the signatures had been objected to on the grounds that such signatures were not genuine. The sample binder check indicated that only 16 of the 365 (4.4%) objections to signatures were sustained. The results of the sample binder check indicated that the 15 pages contained 281 valid signatures, 25 more than the minimum necessary. All 68 objections that were sustained were on findings by the Board staff that the registration cards could not be found in the binders.

Unlike Barton, where only the 4.4% of objections were sustained, the sustained rate in the instant case was 34%. Further, since the facts in the instant case demonstrate that Mr. Mittal used a facsimile signature when notarizing the circulator petitions and considering the party's stipulation (that the use of a facsimile signature is prohibited in the Illinois Notary Public Handbook and should it be determined that the use of signature facsimile was improper and all the signatures appearing on the circulators' signatures were stricken, then the Candidate would have less than 475 valid signatures), it is your Hearing officer's recommendation that the Electoral Board find that the petition was brought in good faith based upon information reasonably known the Objector at the time. In other words, considering the potential abuse a facsimile stamp could be used for in the context of a political campaign, and considering the fact that that the Secretary of State Handbook states that "Notaries may not use facsimile signature stamps in signing his or her name on her official certificates. A signature must be written in ink as commissioned", it is your Hearing Examiner's recommendation that the Candidate's motion to dismiss based upon the petition being a "shotgun" petition and not brought in good faith should be denied.

Should the signatures notarized by Mr. Mittal be Stricken

The statutory requirement that circulators of petitions sign a statement before an officer authorized to administer oaths has been held to be a substantial and valid requirement that relates to the integrity of the political process. Williams v. Butler, 35 Ill. App. 3d 532, 341 N.E.2d 394 (4th Dist.1976). These sworn statements must aver that the persons signing are the persons who actually circulated the petitions, that the signatures were signed in their presence, and that the signatures collected are genuine. Such authentication provides a significant safeguard against fraud by subjecting the circulator to the penalty of a perjury prosecution.

However, courts and electoral boards hesitate to remove candidates for purely technical defects in the notarization process or in the jurat, a trend which follows a well-established line of cases holding that harmless omissions, inadvertent acts, and grammatical/clerical errors in authentications will not defeat an otherwise valid instrument. See, e.g., Mason v. Brock, 12 Ill. App. 273, 279 (1850); Stout v. Slattery, 12 Ill. 162 (1850). See also Levine v. Simms-Johnson, No. 96-EB-WC-31 (Chicago Electoral Board 1996). In Delgado v. Ladien, No. 99-EB-ALD-126 (Chicago Electoral Board 1999), the Chicago Electoral Board found substantial compliance when a notary affixed his seal, but failed to sign the authentication. See also Cintuc, Inc. v. Kozubowski, 230 Ill. App. 3d 969, 596 N.E.2d 101 (1992), where court held that inserting the name of the notary rather than the name of the circulator in the jurat did not render the petition invalid. The court reasoned that the jurat is not an affidavit, but serves as evidence of the fact that the affidavit was properly sworn to by the affiant. Moreover, the affiant was otherwise identified in the pages. Accordingly, unless a pattern of fraud is evident, notary questions are often resolved in favor of the candidate, E.g., Fitzgerald v. Brandt, No. 92-EB-WC-63 (Chicago Electoral Board 1993) (signature sheets); Maltbia v. Muhammad, No. 92-EB-ALD-137 (Chicago Electoral Board 1995) (unknowing use of defective notary not fatal).

In the instant case there is no pattern of fraud. Rather, Mr. Mittal testified that on November 22, 2013, he met Michael Martin at the Candidate's campaign office in Carol Stream. Mr. Martin presented Mr. Mittal with nominating petitions that Martin acknowledged he circulated and were signed in his presence. Mr. Martin completed a notarization log in which Mr. Martin entered his name, address, date drivers' number and signature.

Mr. Mittal testified he entered Mr. Martin's name on the appropriate line on the bottom of the petition and applied his notary seal and his facsimile signature stamp to the form.

Mr. Mittal further testified that he returned to the campaign office on November 24, 2013 and performed the same procedure when notarizing the nominating pages circulated by the 24 circulators whose names appear on the notarization log (Exhibit 3).

Based on the Mr. Mittal's testimony that he used a facsimile stamp in submitting documents to governmental agencies since 1993 without ever being told that it was improper, the use of the facsimile stamp to notarize the circulators' signatures in the instant case is, at best, a technical defect that did not affect the purpose behind the notarization requirement--to lessen the chance of fraud by providing a procedure to assure that the circulators recognize the legal significant of their sworn statement, it is your hearing officer's recommendation that the signatures be allowed to stand. (See Gilbert v. Electoral Board, No. 80 CO 74 (Cook Cty.Cir. 1980), where the Cook County Circuit Court has upheld an electoral board decision to allow signatures where the notary was unaware that his commission had expired. Further, Hamill v. Young, No. 89-COEB-NWRD-03, rev'd, No. 90 CO 20 (Cook Cty.Cir. 1990), held that it is not the duty of those who go before notaries to ensure that their commissions have not expired, even where the commission expired 13 years prior.

Accordingly, since there is no pattern of fraud established, it is your hearing officer's recommendation that the Electoral Board overrule the Objector's claim that the circulators' signatures notarized by Amitabh V W. Mittal be stricken.

RECOMMENDATION

Based upon the aforementioned reasons, it is recommended that the Objector's petition be denied and that MANJU GOEL have his name placed on the March 18, 2014 primary ballot for the office of Representative for the 8th Congressional District.

COMPLAINT

NOW COMES Plaintiff Shalabh Kumar, by his attorneys, Chuhak & Tecson, P.C., and complains of Defendants Larry Kaifesh, Carol L. "Carrie" Miller and Biju Mathew as follows:

COUNT I

DEFAMATION PER SE

AGAINST DEFENDANTS MILLER AND KAIFESH

1. At all relevant times, Plaintiff Shalabh Kumar ("Kumar") was an individual residing in Lake County, Illinois.
2. Before Defendants' acts described below, Kumar was a person of good reputation and was deservedly held in high esteem by persons of his acquaintance, both in personal and business capacities, and by the general public. Kumar is a long-time donor to Republican causes, who has been active in the local and national Indian-American community. Kumar has also been a long-time beneficial owner and operator of an electronics business located in DuPage County.
3. At all times relevant, Kumar was a financial supporter of Manju Goel, who is a candidate for the Republican nomination for the 8th U.S. Congressional District in Illinois.
4. Defendant Larry Kaifesh ("Kaifesh") is an individual residing in Kane County, Illinois. On November 4, 2013 Kaifesh announced the he is seeking the Republican nomination for the 8th U.S. Congressional District in Illinois.

5. Defendant Carol L. Miller, known as "Carrie" Miller ("Miller") is, on information and belief, a resident of Schaumburg, Illinois. Miller is a political activist in the north suburban organization known as Patriots in Action, based in Schaumburg, Illinois, and Miller resides in Cook County. Patriots in Action is affiliated with Grassfire Nation, which is a national organization that supports candidates and issues of interest to members in the Tea Party.

6. Defendant Biju Mathew ("Mathew"), is an individual who is an associate professor at Rider University (Lawrenceville, New Jersey), and an activist for an organization known as The Coalition Against Genocide ("CAG"). Mathew is a self-proclaimed Marxist, devoted to end United States imperialism and capitalist economies.

7. At all relevant times, Defendants Kaifesh and Miller knew that Kumar was a financial supporter of Ms. Goel in her race for the Republican nomination for the 8th U.S. Congressional District.

8. On November 21, 2013 Kaifesh, Ms. Goel, and other republican candidates appeared at a candidates' forum held in Barrington Hills, Illinois, sponsored by the Barrington Township GOP organization (the "Barrington Hills event"). The Barrington Hills event was attended by approximately 100 people.

9. At the Barrington Hills event, during the time Ms. Goel presented her opening candidate's statement to the audience, Ms. Miller personally hand-distributed flyers to all of the attendees. The flyer included a photograph of Ms. Goel standing next to Kumar and another gentleman. Above the photograph was the flyer included the following text:

Manju Goel Supporter, Shalabh Kumar, reported to the Ethics Committee for fraud.

"A person who openly resorts to fraud to promote a human rights abuser like Narendra Modi should not be representing the Indian American community at the House Republican Conference."

A true and correct copy of the flyer is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

10. Miller and perhaps others obtained the quoted language in the flyer, verbatim, from a press release issued on November 16, 2013 by CAG, with a quote by Mathew. A copy of the CAG Press Release is attached hereto as Exhibit B. The CAG Press Release includes other statements regarding Plaintiff Kumar, including a description of Mr. Kumar as a "person with a checkered history of ethics violations."

11. By distributing flyer at the Barrington Hills event, Miller maliciously published false and defamatory materials attempting to mislead, confuse and deceive the audience, as well as the general public that Kumar "openly resorts to fraud."

12. The flyer distributed at the Barrington Hills event also gives the mistaken impression that the Ethics Committee has determined that Kumar resorted to fraud.

13. The statements in the Barrington Hills event flyer regarding Kumar's fraud are totally false and untrue.

14. Defendant Miller was aware the remarks in the flyer about Kumar's "fraud" were false and untrue.

15. Miller is an agent of Kaifesh. The distribution of the flyers at the Barrington Hills event was orchestrated between Defendant Miller and Defendant Kaifesh in order to falsely portray Plaintiff Kumar as a person with a checkered past of ethics violations, and also to demean Ms. Goel by her association with Plaintiff Kumar. Miller had been very active in assisting the Kaifesh campaign since Kaifesh's announcement on November 4, 2013.

16. Plaintiff Kumar has been involved in various business entities, acting within the Chicagoland area, and has been for the last 30 years a leader of the Indian American community in the Chicagoland area and in developing ties between the local community and India.

17. Plaintiff Kumar is a prominent official in the entity known as the National Indian American Public Policy Institute ("NIAPPI"). The NIAPPI mission statement reads:

Our mission is to formulate and promote public policies based on the principles of Free enterprise, Limited government, Individual freedom, Resolute national defense, American and Indian exceptionalism, Participative democracy along with a better understanding of Indian History, Traditions and Culture. It is a think tank that will provide and articulate both a short term and a long term vision for all Americans and in particular Indian American community in the U.S. See www.Niappi.com.

18. The false statements of Miller, Kaifesh (through his agent Miller) imputed that Kumar lacks integrity in his actions and his conduct. Modi purported event "at Capitol Hill" exposed as fake

Sangh Front in the US, NIAPPI / Shalabh Kumar Reported to the Ethics Committee for fraud

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Washington DC, Saturday, November 16, 2013

The Coalition Against Genocide (CAG) has successfully exposed Narendra Modi's purported event on "Capitol Hill" as a fraud and an exercise in illegal and criminal misuse of US Government symbols. After five days of phone calls, letters, document verification and hundreds of emails between CAG activists and Congressional staffers, several members of the House Republican Conference whose names had been used to endorse the Modi event have washed their hands off the event. First reports in the media also suggest that the congresspersons were unaware that their names or the Congressional seal were being used to promote the Modi event and that the fraud had been enacted by an organization called National Indian American Public Policy Institute (NIAPPI) and one Mr. Shalabh Kumar, a person with a checkered history of ethics violations.

CAG has learned that the office of Rep. Cathy McMorris Rodgers has issued a "Cease and Desist" order to Mr. Shalabh 'Shalli' Kumar and NIAPPI, who are organizers of the event outside Capitol Hill, where Modi is expected to appear via satellite video on November 19, 2013.

The promotional material for the event has illegally used the seal of the House of Representatives as well as names and pictures of the top Republican Leadership without their consent. It purports to have the support and endorsement of the House Republican Conference, a top Republican body chaired by Rep. Cathy Rodgers.

The "Cease and Desist" Notice seeks immediate cessation of all activities to promote the Modi broadcast in the name of Congresswoman Rodgers and the House Republican Conference. Even as the office of Rep. Rodgers issued the "Cease and Desist", other Republicans namely Congressman Sessions moved swiftly to put a distance between themselves and the Modi broadcast. In a statement issued by Congressman Sessions received by CAG via email, Congressman Sessions stated clearly:

"It has come to my attention that the National Indian American Public Policy Institute (NIAPPI) recently used my name and image on an invitation to an event that it is hosting in Washington, DC, on November 19. At no point in time did I agree to attend this event, nor did I approve of the use of my name or image on this invitation. Further, I did not see the invitation until it had been distributed publicly. Had I known that my name and image were on this invitation before it was distributed, I would have requested that they both be removed. Additionally, I have contacted NIAPPI to request that they remove my name and image from this invitation and that they explicitly ask my approval before using my name or image in any of their materials going forward." – U.S. Congressman Pete Sessions (R-TX-32)

NIAPPI, the key agent behind this misrepresentation and fraudulent promotional tactics, is a Hindu nationalist front organization posing as a public policy institute. It is a resting ground for RSS stalwarts like Bhallal Patel. In the case of this event, Kumar and company tried to run piggyback on an event titled the "Indian American Meetup" that has nothing to do with NIAPPI, and that is indeed taking place inside the Capitol Hill building on November 19. The program schedule for this event clearly shows that neither Mr. Modi nor any functionary of the RSS are scheduled to speak at this event. This GOP "meet and greet" event with Indian Americans was projected as a Modi promotional by Shalli Kumar and the NIAPPI.

EXHIBIT B

CAG activists spoke with the offices of Rep. Greg Walden and Rep. Bob Goodlatte seeking clarification, since their pictures appeared on the flyer. Staffers from both Congressmen's offices stated categorically that they were unaware of the event, or that the Congressmen's names and pictures were being used without authorization to promote it.

CAG has called on the House Ethics Committee to launch an investigation into the fraudulent use of the House Seal, and the fake projection of GOP support for the event. It has also called upon Congresswoman Cathy McMorris Rodgers to expel Mr. Shaili Kumar from the HRC's Indian American Advisory Board. "A person who openly resorts to fraud to promote a human rights abuser like Narendra Modi should not be representing the Indian American community at the House Republican Conference" said Biju Mathew. CAG further called upon Congresswoman Rodgers to publicly disassociate herself from NIAPPI and Modi.

The Coalition Against Genocide includes a diverse spectrum of organizations and individuals in the United States and Canada that have come together in response to the Gujarat genocide to demand accountability and justice. The coalition had effectively campaigned against Narendra Modi in 2005 to get a US entry ban on him for egregious religious freedom violations.

Manju Goel: The Best Republican to Watch in the Party, Bring ZUKT New Voters and Retake the 8th Congressional District of Illinois.

Manju Goel endorsed by Joe Walsh & Top National Leaders of Republican Party

Manju Goel is a first-generation U.S. citizen. Her life and career are a testament to the value of hard work and personal responsibility, and also to the hope and opportunity that is America.

Manju brings a unique perspective to our country's problems and proposed solutions. While she has lived the American Dream, she has also seen firsthand the consequences of Washington policies that encourage welfare and handouts and discourage hard work. Manju saw the country of her birth faced near bankruptcy in 1991 because of the failed policies of big government, high taxes and massive regulations.

As a first generation Indian American, Manju is uniquely qualified to broaden our base, grow our party and retake Illinois' 8th District. With almost twenty percent of general election voters in 2014 coming from the Indian American community, Manju Goel is our best hope to send a conservative voice to Washington, D.C.

As our next Congresswoman, Manju will work tirelessly for common-sense fiscal solutions that ensure America get back on the right track.
